Lafayette Genealogical Society

The Lafayette Genealogical Society was formally organized in 1985, with a membership of 15. Lafayette Genealogical Society dedicates themselves to collect and encourage interest in genealogy, to preserve and make available genealogical material and to assist the researcher in compiling material on family history. Lafayette Genealogical Society covers the area of the original Attakapas area, which now includes the parishes of Lafayette, St. Martin, St. Mary, Acadia, Vermilion, Evangeline and Iberia. Membership is open to all persons interested in genealogy and family history. Members receive our monthly newsletter, via web site at http://lafayettegenealogicalsociety.org which announces meetings and other items of immediate interest, and our yearly publications "Les Memoirs." Regular meetings are held the 3rd Thursday of each month (excluding December) at 6:30 P.M. at the Lafayette Parish Library meeting room. Membership dues, which includes a subscription to "Les Memoirs" and the monthly newsletter is $20.00 Family membership (Husband and Wife).
