He proudly served his country as a member of the U.S. Navy and USNR from 1945 -1953. He was employed as a Professional Pharmaceutical Representative for Merck Sharpe & Dohme from 1956 until his retirement in 1991. His passions included the profession of pharmacy, his Cajun Heritage, his extensive genealogy research, The Lafayette Community Health Care Clinic and last but not least his passion for a beautiful lawn. He spent many hours laboring in his yard in silent bliss. Dear to his heart were his family and friends. He was a loving father and grandfather, a faithful friend and confidant, a devoted brother, son, and a hard worker his entire life. He valued a job well done and was a true believer that "anything worth doing was worth doing well". He was an avid duck and dove hunter, enjoyed the company of good friends and good food especially Jan's chicken and sausage gumbo. What endeared him to many was his doting nature towards his grandchildren. Affectionally known as "PawPaw", he spent countless hours giving tractor rides, making "coosh-coosh" on Sunday mornings, rocking his grandchildren to sleep, and was delighted when his home was filled with his grandchildren's laughter. He cherished every moment with them and each had a special place in his heart. Mr. Hebert was a voice of reason to many, a notorious organizer, an optimist at heart, and most of all he loved well and was well loved. His presence will be missed by many.
